

Reading Comprehension

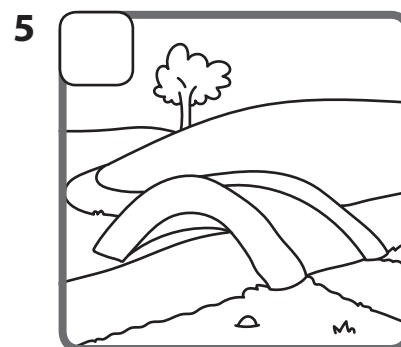

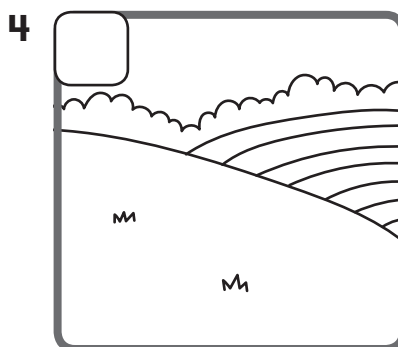

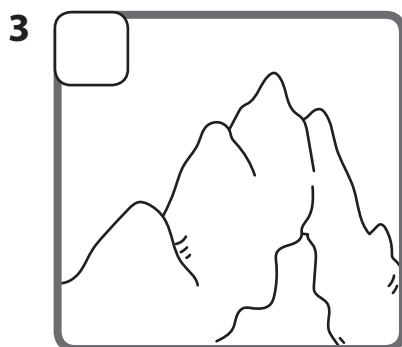

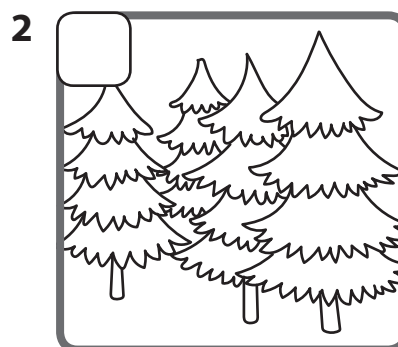

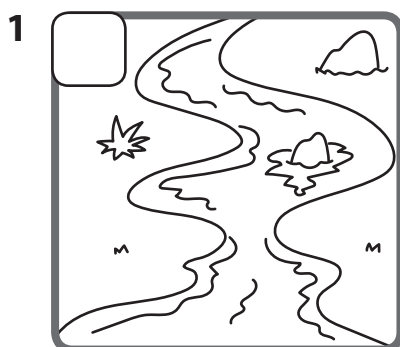

Two Stubborn Little Goats

A Which sentences help teach us the story's lesson? Check (✓).

Theme: Being stubborn doesn't make people happy.

- a They ate grass together on East Mountain. ☐
- b They always fought about who was best. ☐
- c Brown Goat crossed the bridge early. ☐
- d They never said "sorry." ☐
- e One day, Brown Goat got up late. ☐
- f They pushed each other with their horns with equal force. ☐

B Which settings are in the story? Check (✓). Then color.

C Read and circle the correct words.

The Two Stubborn Little Goats is a folk tale / fable.

It teaches us a lesson / about animals.

D Number the events in the correct order.

- a Two of the brothers, Black Goat and Brown Goat, were both very stubborn. ☐
- b Black Goat and Brown Goat were on the bridge between the mountains at the same time. ☐
- c They were angry, wet, tired, cold, and hungry because they were too stubborn. ☐
- d They pushed each other for a long time. They got tired and fell into the river. ☐
- e Black Goat was angry at Brown Goat so he moved to West Mountain. ☐
- f A family of goats lived on East Mountain. ☐

E Circle True or False.

- | | | |
|---|-------------|--------------|
| 1 Black Goat and Brown Goat were sisters. | True | False |
| 2 The juiciest grass was on East Mountain. | True | False |
| 3 Brown Goat always crossed the bridge late. | True | False |
| 4 They pushed each other with their legs. | True | False |

Extra Draw and color an animal with horns.

