

Unit 6

Reading Comprehension

You Can Be a Poet

Name: _____

A Read the sentences. What do you visualize? Draw.

- 1 A robin hops through the grass.

- 2 Tiny snowflakes kiss my nose.

B Write one fact about each kind of poem.

- 1 An acrostic poem

- 2 A cinquain poem

- 3 A haiku

C Complete the sentences.

You Can Be a Poet is an _____ text.

It tells us how to write three different kinds of _____.

D Circle True or False.

1 Describing the look, smell, sound, and feel of something makes poems interesting.

True

False

2 An acrostic poem has five lines.

True

False

3 A cinquain poem has three action verbs ending in -ing.

True

False

4 Haiku comes from China.

True

False

E Answer the questions.

1 What do many poets write about?

2 What does a good poet have?

3 What does a good poet know how to do?

4 How many examples of poems are there in the reading?

Extra Read the words. Make example sentences.

1 exact

2 observe

3 describe
